DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. The drawings are objected to under 37 CFR 1.83(a). The drawings must show every feature of the invention specified in the claims. Therefore, the branched first passageway must be shown or the feature(s) canceled from the claim(s). No new matter should be entered.

Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as “amended.” If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either “Replacement Sheet” or “New Sheet” pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-8, 10,12-19, and 21-26 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Fuson et al (US 3,957,082).

Fuson teaches a rotatable stopcock valve is first (37) and second (39) ports, a first passageway (21)' a valve member (11) defining a part of the first passageway (55) with a first opening (narrow end) and second opening (wide end, Fig 8). The valve further comprises a handle (51), a releasable lock (57) and a button (71). The first port is normally closed by a luer cap (80). The second (distal) end of the housing includes a third port (21) that connects to tubing (43). As to claim 10, second passageway (41) includes a relief port (19). The first passageway is branched (branches 37,39,41).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fuson as applied to claims above, and further in view of Atkinson et al (US 5,261,459).

5. Fuson does not teach a slit valve for closing the first port, only a luer cap.

Atkinson teaches a well known type of slit valves, the duckbill valve. It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a duckbill valve instead of a luer cap as an alternate means of sealing the first port to prevent contaminating the valve.

6. Claims 11, 20, and 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fuson as applied to claims above, and further in view of Jinotti (US 5,088,486).

7. Fuson does not teach a dual lumen nasogastric tube or a connector for attaching a nasogastric tube to his valve. Jinotti teaches a rotatable valve (20) for connection to a dual lumen (22) nasogastric tube (Fig 5). The nasogastric tube connects via adapters (160 and 150) with strain relief (310).
